ORCHESTRA CLOSING FESTIVAL.

TWO EXCELLENT PROGRAMS by Thomas orchestra, one yesterday afternoon, and one last evening, closed the annual spring festival of the Harmonie chorus at the Grand, Davenport. At the yesterday afternoon program Reed Miller, tenor, and Hans Letz, concert master of the orchestra, were the soloists, each giving a number, and responding to encores. The program last evening was the most pretentious one of the festival and it was of unusual merit. Frederick Weld, baritone, Mme. Nevada Vander Voer, contralto, Miss Florence Hinkle, soprano, and Reed Miller, tenor, were the soloists. The Harmonie chorus gave three short numbers with orchestra accompaniment. The orchestra gave six splendid numbers, of which four were Wagnerian, the love scene in the garden from "Tristan and Isolde," "Waldweben" from "Siegfried," the "Ride of the Valkyries" from "Die Walkure" and "Vorspiel" from "Die Meistersinger." A better orchestra program has perhaps never been given in the tri-cities. The attendance at the four concerts has been most gratifying to the members of the Harmonie chorus who have worked so hard to make their festival the success that it was.

SWANSON-CARLSON.

MISS ROSE CARLSON, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gust Carlson of 822 Seventeenth avenue, Moline, and Gustaf Conrad Swanson, were united in marriage Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's parents, the Rev. A. M. Johansen of the Mission Tabernacle performing the ceremony. A company of friends and relatives witnessed the service. Miss Ruth Carlson, the bride's sister, and Harry Eckstam, were of the bridal party. A cousin of the bridegroom, Miss Johnson of Galva, played the Lohengrin wedding march as the bridal party entered. The bride wore a pretty white lingerie dress and carried a shower bouquet of bride roses and sweet peas. Her bridesmaid was gowned in pink silk mulle, and she carried sweet peas. A beautiful white arch and wedding bell of roses and sweet peas was arranged at one side of the room where the bridal party took their places. All the rooms were fragrant with pretty pink and white flowers, and southern amallax was used artistically. Mr. Swanson is a cabinetmaker by trade, and he and his bride will continue to make their home in Moline.

MR. AND MRS. RAGUET TO VISIT.

ENSIGN EDWARD COOK RAGUET, United States navy, with his bride, who was formerly Miss Helen Gaultier of Hickox, Ga., will visit in the tri-cities next week. The marriage of Mr. Raguet and Miss Gaultier took place last Wednesday in St. Mark's Episcopal church at Brunswick, Ga., which is a short distance from Hickox, the southern home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas B. Gaultier, the parents of the bride, and the young people left shortly after for the north. Mr. Raguet is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Condo G. Raguet of Davenport, and he has many friends in the tri-cities, where he grew to manhood. He is a graduate of the Annapolis Naval academy, and is now stationed on the U. S. S. South Carolina, which it is expected will pass the summer months at Hampton Roads.

FOURTH ANNUAL TAG DAY.

AT A MEETING OF THE HELPERS' circle of King's Daughters and the Associated Charities, held at the Association house last evening, it was decided to conduct the fourth annual tag day of the associations Saturday, May 18. The societies will hold another meeting next week and chairmen of committees and ward captains will be appointed and plans perfected for the canvass for charity. Tag day will be carried on in much the same way that has been done on the three previous occasions that the societies have had charge, and they hope to realize as much if not more than has been collected at these times. The proceeds from tags are divided between the two societies and are applied to the charity work carried on under their direction.
